Re: Torres' Pro Se Motion and Documents Hand-Delivered to the Court on 8/23/2022

Dear Honorable Martinotti,

Per your request during yesterday's Court hearing dated August 23, 2022 scheduled at 11am, I am sending this letter to confirm that I would like to proceed under hybrid representation or pro se. If the Court denies hybrid representation, I would like to proceed pro se with David E. Schaffer as standby counsel.

During yesterday's Court hearing, I provided the Court with 75 pages of documentation via the U.S. Marshalls present in the courtroom which the Court acknowledged to have received. The 75 pages are comprised of the following:

1. Pro se motion and Defendant's preliminary request to the Court (3 pages).
2. Motion to Reopen the Appearance of a Conflict of Interest Based on "Newly Discovered Evidence" (10 pages).
3. Defendant's civil lawsuit against Sher Tremonte, et al. The lawsuit describes the scheme that was hatched against the Defendant by AUSA Emma Spiro and Emma Spiro's former boss from Sher Tremonte, Noam Korati Biale, counsel; and former work colleague from Sher Tremonte, Anna Maria Estevao, associate attorney (34 pages).
4. Motion for Reconsideration Related to the Court's Opinion and Order Addressing Motions in Limine (7 pages).

5. Torres' Response to District Court's Opinion Re: Motions in Limine (17 pages).
6. Sur-reply to Government Response to Motion for Temporary Release (4 pages).

Respectfully Submitted,
